KILLS HIS FATHER 2 YEARS HUNTING AT XMAS DINNER. HIS STOLEN CHILD.

His Mother Had Been 1 Struck by Her Drunken Husband.

PATIENCE WORN OUT.

The Father Had Cursed Them All and Began Tearing the Family Album.

The mother and the younger son, John. ran in terror from the room to a beighbor's apartment, and the other son tells the only story of what followed immediately afterward. He said:

"The cld man turned to the stove and started to burn up the aboum. Then I stabbed him. He came toward me and I stabbed him. He came toward me and I stabbed him. He the toward me and I stabbed him again."

The last blow was fatal. It severed the ingular vein. Harry started for the stairs with his father behind. When the boy reached the foot of the stairs the old man was staggering at the threshold.

Harry was arrested and locked up in the Grand Avenue Police Station. He is eighteen years of age, and strong for his years. He is an amateur boxer, with ambitions for ring honors, and has appeared in several amateur bouts in the 105-pound class. His farher weighed 175 pounds.

The rounger boy, John, said: "The old man could not keep sober, and he made life awful for us all. He was always bent on smashing something when he came home drunk. We thought that we were going to have a nice little Christmas dinner, but look at this."

The boy was weeping, and the neighbors who came in said that the mother was almost insane.

WHO TRIED TO EJECT HIM.

Motorman Brumert, Roughly Waked from Sleep in a Barroom, Shot Nicholas Schmidt.

Nicholas Schmidt, a saloonkeeper at No. 1134 Summit avenue, Jersey City, was shot dead in his place of business at 3 a. m. yesterday by Theodore Bramert, a motor man, of Homestend, North Bergen. Brumert was arrested. He said that after taking several drinks in Schmidt's saloon he fell asleep and that the keeper and his son, upon his refusal to depart, knocked him down and beat him with a club. He declares the fired at Schmidt while on the floor.

A club about the size of a policeman's ally was found in the saloon, and Brumert fore marks of having been beaten. Hunting for Pigeons; Shot Himself.

ACCUSES AN ACTRESS.

Girl of Nine Years Believed to Be on Stage Now in San Francisco.

Chicago, Dec. 25.-Chandler T. Harris had hoped on Christmas morning he would again see his nine-year-old daughter, He loise, who was kidnapped from his home in Gnatemala two years ago.

He expected to find Heloise in Chicago last night-he had information from the detectives who have worked on the case since her disappearance that she had been in Ohleago recently-but a visit last night to the place where she was supposed to have been brought out the fact that the child's abductor, who is believed to be a variety actress and former governess at the Harris home, had left the city.

Mr. Harris arrived in Chicago last night. coming at the telegraphic request of the correspondents of his New York attorneys. At the Chicago avenue police station Mr. Harris's representative told Lieutenant Cudmore the story of the theft of the York City. Two years ago an American woman obtained a position at the Harris home as governess. She said she was an acrees and was stranded there.

Several weeks later the governess and Heloise disappeared. After their disappearance it was learned that the governess and child made their way to Libertad, San Saivador, where they took passage on a saling vessel for New York.

In the canvass of the music halls and vaudeville houses in New York traces of the woman and child were found. From that city the abductor and the child were followed to Chicago.

Mr. Harris and the detectives believe the woman went to San Francisco from here, and they left to-day for the Pacific coast on the Burlington fast mall.

MAINE'S CHAPLAIN QUELLS A FIRE PANIC IN CHURCH.

Christmas Services in St. Stephen's Interrupted-Father Chidwick Reassures Congregation.

There was a fire in St. Stephen's Catholic Church, in East Twenty-eighth street, resterday afternoon. Had it not been for the prompt action of the sexton and several persons in the congregation there might have been disastrous results. Solemn Christmas vespers were being cel-Forated. Father Colton was conducting them, and Father Chidwick, once of the
